Guest Speaker:

In the last seven years, Mary Jane has personally assisted hundreds of small businesses in determining suitability for contracting, vendor registrations, business development, and federal acquisition regulations. In addition, she has assisted women, veterans and minority owned companies in determining eligibility and application assistance for the SBA contracting programs such as: 8(a), HUBZone, Woman and Economically Disadvantaged Woman Owned, and Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business Programs as well as state ALDOT and ADECA women and minority owned business programs. Mary Jane graduated from UAH and received a Master Certificate in Federal Contract Management. She is a Level II Associate Contracting Assistance Specialist with APTAC, a VA certified CVE Verification Counselor, and a Level 1 Federal Contractor Certification Trainer with hours of required current professional development training by national associations, federal agencies and Defense Acquisition University. Mary Jane was awarded the 2012 ASBDC Alabama State Star Award for her contributions to regional small businesses. Mary Jane previously worked in banking and was successful in sales, marketing, and a management position with a local company, and has been a partner in a family owned business for over 20 years.
