SBA Loan Clinic

On September 27, 2010, President Obama signed into law the Small Business Jobs Act that will provide critical resources to help small businesses continue to drive economic recovery and create jobs. The new law extends the successful SBA Recovery enhanced loan provisions while offering billions more in lending support, tax cuts, and other opportunities for entrepreneurs and small business owners.

Come and learn about the new SBA Enhanced Loan Provisions:

- Puts more capital in the hands of entrepreneurs and small business owners
- Strengthens small businesses' ability to compete for contracts, including recommendations from the president's task force on federal contracting opportunities for small businesses
- Promotes small business exporting, building on the president's national export initiative
- Provides $12 billion in tax relief to help small businesses invest in their firms, create jobs and
- Treasury department provisions.
