

Alabama Small Business Development Center Network

Strengthening Alabama's Economy, One Small Business at a Time.

www.asbdc.org

INNOVATION DEPOT LUNCH & LEARN

January 12, 2016

Training Room | 12:00 – 1:00 PM

Located just down the hall at the Innovation Depot, the Alabama SBDC Network provides small business owners with access to trusted business advisors who have experience in starting and growing businesses.

Come meet the business advisors that offer Depot tenants no-cost assistance.

We offer expertise and keen insight essential to helping you manage your business concerns today, and design solid long-range plans to secure your visions for tomorrow.

This session will feature speakers from ASBDC's three specialty programs:

- Alabama International Trade Center
Ready to export your product or service? Source a component from overseas?
- ASBDC Procurement Technical Assistance Program (PTAC)
Sell to the government. Compete for awards at the federal, state, and local levels.
- Capital Access Program
Funding solutions to help you grow your business.

Get Results Today

The SBDC has a variety of programs to help you meet your goals. From individualized consulting, to specialty training and beyond.

There will be time to meet other business owners, enjoy a free lunch, and explore ways to grow and expand your business. No charge to attend, but seating is limited; please RSVP today.

<http://ASBDC.org/lunch>

Note: The US Small Business Administration (SBA) will recognize the 2015 Alabama Exporter of the Year during the presentation; this year's winner happens to be a current tenant of the Innovation Depot!

The Alabama SBDC Network at The University of Alabama is Funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact the ASBDC, Box 870396, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0396. 1-877-825-7232.

