

Alabama Small Business Development Center Network

Strengthening Alabama's Economy, One Small Business at a Time.

www.asbdc.org

The Opelika Chamber of Commerce and Lee-Russell Council of Governments Present:

Funding and Marketing to Take Your Small Business to the Next Level

Thursday, February 16, 2017 - 12:00 Noon
Opelika Chamber of Commerce
601 Avenue A, Opelika, AL 36801

Speakers for the Event:

Taylor Dobson, Small Business Loan Fund Manager Lee-Russell Council of Governments

Angie Sweatman, Vice-President Alabama Small Business Capital

Lindsay Bridges, Director Auburn University Small Business Development Center

Online Registration

Taylor, Angie, and Lindsay will speak about lending practices and resources available to business owners and bankers. Both Taylor and Angie manage loans funds that partner with banks to provide gap financing to borrowers, while Lindsay offers financial projections, marketing assistance, and other related services.

Cost: $10 member; $15 potential member (Lunch Included)

To be eligible, the business must be for-profit

These loan funds:

- Offer Low Fixed Interest Rates
- Can Finance Real Estate, Equipment, and/or Working Capital
- Are Tied to Job Creation

The Alabama SBDC Network at The University of Alabama is Funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact the ASBDC, Box 870396, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-0396. 1-877-825-7232.

