Are you looking to do business with the local, state or federal government?

If so, the Alexander City Chamber of Commerce is partnering with the Alabama State University Small Business Development Center (SBDC) Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) to bring basic government contracting training and follow-up counseling sessions to its members and the surrounding community at large. If you're new to government contracting, then this initiative is exactly what you need to help you get started on a positive step! This program is designed to inform participants of the services offered by the ASU SBDC PTAC and an opportunity to assess and evaluate your company's potential as a government contractor. Among the topics covered: how to register as a government contractor; how to research the government market; how to market your products and services to the government; and special programs and certifications in government contracting.

Presenter: Thomas Taylor, Procurement Specialist, ASU SBDC
