

How Can Small Businesses Comply with OSHA Standards?

Growing
Alabama's
Economy One Small Business at a Time

SBDC Websites:

www.asbdc.org

www.jsusbdc.com

You'll learn:
What is OSHA?

OSHA requirements for small businesses

OSHA's no-cost, confidential On-Site Consultation Program

How to how your commitment to safety and reduce cost

Presented By

Small Business Development Center at JSU

Date: October 18, 2019

Time: 9:00 am – 10:15 am

Location: Calhoun County Area Chamber & Visitors Center
1330 Quintard Ave., Anniston, AL

Agenda

Welcome and Introduction Steve Cheatwood, CSP. Certified Safety Professional
Presentation by Video Timothy Irving, Assistant Regional Administrator at OSHA

RSVP: Laura Mizzell - 256-591-5487 or email
laura.mizzell@scorevolunteer.org or

SBDC at JSU 256-782-5271

No Cost and Open to the Public

Alabama SBDC Network is funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). Hosted by The University of Alabama. Nationally accredited by the Association of SBDCs.

Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact Anna Fang, 115 College Street SW, 6101 SBIC, Jacksonville, AL 36265. 256-782-5271.