IDIQ stands for Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quality. This type of contract is prevalent for services, IT, and architectural needs the federal government may have. In this workshop you will understand many aspects to this type of contract including

- What IDIQ contracts are
- How are IDIQ contracts used
- What capabilities are typically purchased off of an IDIQ contract
- Advantages/Disadvantages of IDIQ contracts
- How to find opportunities for IDIQ contracts

There will be no charge to attend, but RSVP is required. To reserve your spot or for questions, please email Lindsay Frey at lsfrey@jsu.edu.
