You are more than welcome to bring a lunch!

Join us for an informational session for businesses seeking to support hurricane recovery projects. We will be joined by program managers of Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (PTACs) working to support vendors interested in working with FEMA, the Army Corps of Engineers, as well as other agencies involved in the recovery efforts. During this session, you will learn:

- How to get registered to do business with FEMA and The Army Corps of Engineers
- How to spot and avoid scams
- Where to find FEMA solicitations out for bidding
- How to donate and volunteer
- And much more...

Target Audience: Businesses seeking to get involved in hurricane recovery projects

Please email Lindsay Frey to let her know you will be attending.
