

Ready Business Workshop Series: Part 2

This is a five part workshop series where businesses can learn preparedness and response to a multitude of emergencies, such as

- active shooter
- losing your entire data base
- medical assistance
- natural disasters.

Sponsors

Alabama Small Business Development Center at JSU
JSU Continuing Education and Outreach
Calhoun County EMA
The Anniston Star

Time and Location

Wednesday, March 18, 2020
Alabama Power
925 Quintard Ave, Anniston, AL 36201
9:00am-11:30am

Dates for additional workshops in the series:

- Part 3 - April 8, 2020
- Part 4 - April 29, 2020
- Part 5 - May 13, 2020

Please call and reserve your seat
Calhoun County Chamber of Commerce 256-237-3536

Growing
Alabama's
Economy One Small Business at a Time

U.S. Small Business Administration

SBDC Websites:

www.asbdc.org

Alabama SBDC Network is funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). Hosted by The University of Alabama. Nationally accredited by the Association of SBDCs.

Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact Anna Fang, 115 College Street SW, 6101 SBIC, Jacksonville, AL 36265. 256-782-5271.