“Emergency Response Contracting Opportunities and Disaster Recovery Assistance”

Thursday, March 28, 2013
Alabama State University
John Garrick Hardy Center (Ballroom)
1055 Tullibody Drive, Montgomery, AL 36104
10:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Hosted by the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at Alabama State University College of Business Administration in partnership with Department of Homeland Security (DHS)/Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Region IV

This is a very special seminar designed to help small businesses understand how to identify and compete for emergency-response contract opportunities. Top government procurement officials, emergency managers, and prime contractors who are responsible for awarding contracts in response to a natural disaster will be present at this event. In addition, there will be a discussion of disaster preparedness measures and what types of disaster recovery assistance is available to small businesses. Participating agencies are: DHS/FEMA; U.S. General Services Administration (GSA); Small Business Administration (SBA); Army Corps of Engineers; Alabama Emergency Management Agency (AEMA); State of Alabama Purchasing Division; Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA); City of Montgomery Emergency Management Agency; and the American Red Cross.
