

Alabama Small Business Development Center Network

Strengthening Alabama's Economy, One Small Business at a Time.

www.asbdc.org

Financial Solutions for Seasoned Business Owners

Local business leaders and advocates are teaming up to offer a free Lunch-n-Learn workshop for seasoned business owners. Business owners with established gross sales over a three year period are invited to attend. Attendees will be provided a box lunch during the informal session, or to grab on the way out.

This presentation will provide a practical financial solution for all businesses that is less costly than Business Loans, Equity Finance and Asset Based Lending.

Each participant must pre-register.

To register, go to the following web link www.moneyandmarketing.net

Sponsors:

TABCC (Tuscaloosa Area Black Chamber of Commerce)

UWA ALSBDC (University of West Alabama Small Business Development Center)

MBDA AL BC (Alabama Minority Business Development Agency & Business Center)

Biz Loans Central, LLC

The SBDC at University of West Alabama is part of the Alabama SBDC Network. Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advanced. Contact Donald Mills, UWA-SBDC, Guy Hunt Technical Complex, R122, Livingston, AL 35470. Phone: 205-652-3734.