Situational Leadership: Leadership and the 1 Minute Manager

There is still time to register for "Situational Leadership: Leadership and the One Minute Manager," being offered at UNA. Leadership and the One-Minute Manager stresses that there is no single, best method of leadership, but are in fact four styles: directing, coaching, supporting, and delegating. Whichever style is used depends on the situation to be managed. Participants will learn why tailoring leadership styles to an individual employee are so important and how it will enhance motivation at all levels.

Date: August 30, 2011, 9 a.m. - 12 Noon

Location: UNA East Campus, Room 101

Cost: $59

Instructor: Dr. Dan Hallock, Chair, Department of Management and Marketing, UNA

This course can be taken individually or as part of the 30-hour UNA Leadership Certificate program. Please call Wanda Dixon at 256-765-4786 if you would like additional information.
